

Agenda

CTC Technologies Meeting, May 26th 2021

Work Package Leads: Evi Lianidou and Nikolas Stoecklein

	Opening Presentations Moderation by Evi Lianidou and Nikolas Stoecklein
14:00 – 14:10	Opening presentation and reception by ELBS chair, Klaus Pantel - Where do we stand with ELBS today? - Relevance of CTCs in the liquid biopsy field
14:10 – 14:20	Presentation by Nikolas Stoecklein - Organization of the technologies group - Results of the survey
14:20 – 14:30	Presentation by Jean-Yves Pierga - Short overview of running clinical trials involving CTCs - Insight into applications of liquid biopsy currently used in the clinic - Highlighting immediate clinical needs
14:30 – 14:40	Presentation by Evi Lianidou ISO15189 certification requirements step by step
14:45 – 16:00	Discussion Rounds Moderation by Evi Lianidou and Nikolas Stoecklein
14:45 – 15:00	Organization of the CTC technologies group: Primary cancer entities and goals
15:00 – 15:15	Working towards accreditation and reimbursement - Markers of immediate interest for ISO15189 certification - Establishment of a validation pipeline - Distribution of protocols and support for certification - ELBS certified labs
15:15 – 15:30	Ring trials and technology assessment - Frequency of ring trials “Pre-competitive arena” for companies - Cross comparisons between technologies - ELBS approved technologies
15:30 – 15:45	Networking “Open channel” for discussion of technologies and issues - Exchange between users and companies

	• Frequency of meetings
15:45 – 16:00	Additional ideas and comments • Where do you see additional potential? • Closing remarks

We wish you a lively and productive meeting!